

This journey takes you to Agra – The city of Taj! The magical allure of the Taj Mahal draws tourists to Agra like moths to a wondrous flame. And despite the hype, it's every bit as good as you've heard. This inimitable poem in white marble was built over a period of 22 years (1631–1653), using a workforce of 22000 people, by the Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan for his Queen Mumtaz Mahal to enshrine her mortal remains. The Taj Mahal presents a wondrous sight at different times of the day – at dawn, during the day, at sunset and even on a moonless night. Needless to say it is exquisite on a moonlit night. The Taj Mahal is not a stand-alone attraction of Agra. The legacy of the Mughal empire has left a magnificent fort and a liberal sprinkling of fascinating tombs and mausoleums; and there's also fun to be had in the bustling chowks (marketplaces).
